

25 Interesting Questions to Ask Your Partner

Deepen your understanding with these questions — and practice the heart of SEEN by taking turns speaking and listening.

1. What is your favorite spot in your home & why?
2. What 3 objects can you not live without?
3. What's something you wish we did more of together?
4. What's one difference between us that you love?
5. What are 2 things you've learned from our relationship?
6. What movie world would you want to live in for a month?
7. If we could teleport anywhere, where would you want to go?
8. If you ruled the world, who'd be your top adviser?
9. Would you rather have a pet dragon or a robot best friend?
10. Would you rather be 12 inches tall or 12 feet tall?
11. What's your most annoying habit, if you're totally honest?
12. What's something you're glad you'll never have to do again?
13. What advice would you give a younger couple about conflict?
14. What's one thing from childhood you realized wasn't normal?
15. If you traded places for a day, what would be the hardest part?
16. If you could relive one day together, what would that be?
17. If you were a kid again, what would you make out of boxes?
18. What invention do you wish had never existed?
19. What item do you hope will be obsolete in 20 years?
20. What's a moment that made you proud of us?
21. If you could master one skill instantly, what would it be?
22. If anything was possible, what would you give your partner?
23. If you became invisible for the day, what would you do?
24. What would you want to know about the future?
25. What would you want a lifetime supply of?

Debbie Cherry, LMFT