

WOULD YOUR PARTNER RATHER...

Take turns guessing what your partner would choose and why. The goal isn't to win... it's to UNDERSTAND each other better, and build the habit of summarizing & empathizing in a fun way.

HOW TO PLAY:

1. Pick a Question. Choose from the list or make up your own.
2. Guess What Your Partner Would Choose.
Say, "I think you'd rather..."
3. Explain Why You Guessed That. Try to imagine their experience, not yours.
4. Partner Shares Their Actual Answer, and Why.
5. Reflect and Empathize. Use phrases like:
 - "I can see how that would matter to you..."
 - "I can see why you feel that way, given..."
 - "I can see that this is really important to you."
6. Switch Roles. Take turns until you've both had a chance to be seen.
7. Bonus Round = Share what you learned about each other. "What surprised you? What did you learn?"

TIPS FOR MAKING IT YOUR OWN:

- The point is understanding, not accuracy. It's okay if you guess "wrong." Every round helps you understand your partner a little bit better.
- Catch the message before responding. Practice the rhythm that builds the habit of empathy in relationships.
- Keep it playful, or go deeper. You can keep it light and fun, or use the prompts to start meaningful conversations. Join, rather than judge.
